Dear Students,

Thank you for your gentle emails letting me know that I neglected to send out the request for you to submit Text Mining Assignment #11. I think I have about 15 of them in my inbox this morning! I'm so sorry for the inconvenience that I caused those of you who looked hard to find the email!

I am doing my best to fix the situation with this email. Please just send your work on Text Mining Assignment #11 along by responding to this email sometime soon. All will be well. Please send it in again in response to this email, even if you previously sent me an email with your work attached, so that all of the submissions might be collected properly. (And thank you for doing the work, even though you had no place to send it!)

Should you need to look for details, here are the places to look ...
